

|  |   |
|--|---|
|  | Object: Agathopolis Museum: MünzkabinettGeschwister-Scholl-Straße 610117 Berlin030 / 266424242ikmk@smb.spk-berlin.de Collection: Antike, Griechen, Hellenismus Inventory number: 18240064 |
|--|---|

Description

Front: Ein Monogramm im Perlkreis.

Rear: Ein Lorbeer-/Olivenkranz (?), in der Mitte ein Punkt.

Basic data

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Material/Technique: | Bronze; struck                                    |
| Measurements:       | Weight: 0.80 g; Diameter: 10 mm; Die-axis:1 h |

Events

|                            |       |                                     |
|----------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------|
| Created                    | When  | 300-200 BC                          |
|                            | Who   |                                     |
|                            | Where | Agathopolis                         |
| Owned                      | When  |                                     |
|                            | Who   | Friedrich Imhoof-Blumer (1838-1920) |
|                            | Where |                                     |
| Sold                       | When  |                                     |
|                            | Who   | Pavlos Lampros (1819-1887)          |
|                            | Where |                                     |
| [Relationship to location] | When  |                                     |
|                            | Who   |                                     |
|                            | Where | Eastern Europe                      |

Keywords

- Bronze
- City
- Classical antiquity
- Coin
- Hellenistic period

Literature

- K. Chryssanthaki-Nagle, Les bronzes au monogramme  $\text{A}\Gamma(\text{A})\Theta$ , Revue Numismatique 161, 2005, 47..