

	Object: Warrior Basket
	Museum: Ethnologisches Museum Arnimallee 27 14195 Berlin 030 / 83 01 273 em@smb.spk-berlin.de
	Collection: Süd- und Südostasien, Naga-Sammlung
	Inventory number: I C 28144

Description

The basket is woven from plant fibre and decorated with seedpods, glass beads, tufts of grass, bone and animal skins. It is a ritual basket used in headhunting dances. It comes from the area formerly known as Banpara (name of the village). Today, the inhabitants of the area in the present-day state of Assam use the names Wancho, Nocte or Konyak Naga.

Collector: Samuel E. Peal

Basic data

Material/Technique:

Basket made of various plant fibers with appliqués of bone, tooth and skin as well as glass beads and strings of seed pods

Measurements:

Object dimension: 30.3 x 31 x 24 cm; Other dimensions: Max height with strap: 51.3 cm

Events

Created	When	1851-1900
	Who	Naga (Banpara)
	Where	India
Created	When	1851-1900
	Who	Naga (Banpara)
	Where	Banpara
Collected	When	After 1868
	Who	Peal, S.E.
	Where	Assam

Keywords

- Basket
- Headhunting
- Kriegerkorb
- Ritualkorb