

	Object: Warrior basket as a ritual basket
	Museum: Ethnologisches Museum Arnimallee 27 14195 Berlin 030 / 83 01 273 em@smb.spk-berlin.de
	Collection: Süd- und Südostasien, Naga-Sammlung
	Inventory number: I C 27980

Description

The warrior basket is made of a plant weave with tufts of grass, a monkey skull, a bird skull and a human head carved out of wood.

The skull indicates that the owner was a successful headhunter. The baskets were used as ritual objects, for example, during headhunting dances.

Basic data

Material/Technique:	Basket made of various plant fibers, decorated with a monkey skull and tassels made of pearls and plant fibers
Measurements:	35 x 28.5 x 20 cm; Height: with strap 50 cm

Events

Created	When	1851-1900
	Who	Naga people
	Where	India

Keywords

- Basket
- Headhunting
- Ritual