

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Hampton Court from the Thames. Museum: Museum Europäischer KulturenArnimallee 2514195 Berlin030 / 266426802mek@smb.spk-berlin.de Inventory number: D (33 R 1964) 200/1987 |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Querformat. Schloß im Südwesten Londons, an der Themse gelegen, in der Grafschaft Middlesex. Hampton Court beherbergt eine bedeutende Gemäldegalerie.

Basic data

|                     |                                                                               |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Kreidelithographien, koloriert; irisierende Tonplatte; einfacher Randstreifen |
| Measurements:       | Höhe x Breite: 31,5 x 41,8 cm                                                 |

Events

|           |       |                                  |
|-----------|-------|----------------------------------|
| Created   | When  | 1840-1860                        |
|           | Who   |                                  |
|           | Where | Frankfurt am Main                |
| Published | When  | 1840-1860                        |
|           | Who   | Eduard Gustav May Söhne (Verlag) |
|           | Where |                                  |