

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object:Kerbholz für Broteinkauf Museum:Museum Europäischer KulturenArnimallee 2514195 Berlin030 / 266426802mek@smb.spk-berlin.de Inventory number:II A 1459 a-b |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Zweiteiliges Kerbholz aus Umbelliferon-Stengel für Broteinkauf bei dem Bäcker.

Herkunft (Allgemein): Monte-Gargano, Apulien, Italien

Sammler: Konietzko, Julius

Basic data

|                     |                               |
|---------------------|-------------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Umbelliferon-Stengel, gekerbt |
| Measurements:       | Länge x Breite: 24 x 5 cm     |

Events

|         |       |             |
|---------|-------|-------------|
| Created | When  | Before 1937 |
|         | Who   | Italians    |
|         | Where |             |