

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Faltz, Raimund: Karl XII. von Schweden als Kronprinz Museum: MünzkabinettGeschwister-Scholl-Straße 610117 Berlin030 / 266424242ikmk@smb.spk-berlin.de Collection: Medaillen, Barock und Rokoko Inventory number: 18201719 |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Front: Kindliches Brustbild des Kronprinzen Karl. (XII.) von Schweden nach rechts im Profil mit langen, gelockten Haaren, Harnisch, auf der Schulter drapierter Überwurf. Links unten die Signatur: R. Faltz.

Basic data

|                     |                                  |
|---------------------|----------------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Wax; modelled                    |
| Measurements:       | Weight: 0.00 g; Diameter: 116 mm |

Events

|         |       |                                                       |
|---------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| Created | When  | 1690                                                  |
|         | Who   | Raimund Faltz (1658-1703)                             |
|         | Where |                                                       |
| Owned   | When  |                                                       |
|         | Who   | Skulpturensammlung und Museum für Byzantinische Kunst |
|         | Where |                                                       |
| Owned   | When  |                                                       |
|         | Who   | Brandenburgisch-Preußische Kunstkammer                |
|         | Where |                                                       |
| Owned   | When  |                                                       |
|         | Who   | Raimund Faltz (1658-1703)                             |
|         | Where |                                                       |

|                               |       |                                   |
|-------------------------------|-------|-----------------------------------|
| Was depicted(Actor)       | When  |                                   |
|                               | Who   | Charles XII of Sweden (1682-1718) |
|                               | Where |                                   |
| [Relationshipto location] | When  |                                   |
|                               | Who   |                                   |
|                               | Where | Northern Europe                   |
| [Relation totime]         | When  | 17. century                       |
|                               | Who   |                                   |
|                               | Where |                                   |

Keywords

- Child
- Medalist
- Modern history
- Münzherstellung
- Portrait
- Weltliche Fürsten
- model

Literature

- W. Steguweit, Raimund Faltz Medailleur des Barock. Berliner Numismatische Forschungen Neue Folge 9 (2004) 143 Nr. 95..